ATTORNEY-CLIENT AGREEMENT STATEMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 2016(b)

- 1. The undersigned client (Debtor) and Richard E. Schimmel (Attorney), pursuant to rule 2016(b), Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, agree and disclose the compensation paid or promised to be paid by client to attorney as follows: For legal services client agrees to pay a minium attorney fee as follows: (minimum fee, nonrefundable and not cancelable, plus filing fee) $1,000.00 plus additional amounts as billed for services rendered at $195 per hour of attorney's time and $85 per hour for paralegal/legal assistant's time, plus costs. Time and expenses are computed from the beginning of first contact with attorney's office. For preparing the Bankruptcy Petition, Schedules, Statement of Affairs, and attachments, client has paid attorney:$1,200.00; balance due at this time from client; $0.00
- 2. Legal services include: analysis of financial situation, advice and assistance to client in determining whether to file a petition under Title 11 of the United States Code; review of documents delivered to attorney by client; preparation of Petition, Schedules, Statement of Affairs, and appearance at one Section 341 Hearing (Meeting of Creditors).
- 3. For additional services beyond paragraph 2, and for services exceeding those which have been paid for at the hourly rate, above, client agrees to pay $195 per hour for attorney's time plus costs. Additional services to be paid for by client include, but are not limited to, motions, hearings, consultations, document scanning, pleadings, correspondence, reaffirmations, redemptions, examinations under oath, contested matters including court appearances, filing responses or objections, negotiations with the trustee or other party, and all legal services beyond those specified in paragraph 2. Specifically, Attorney does not agree to appear in adversary proceedings, examinations or motions without additional fees paid by client. Prior to deciding to file the case, client had spent time with attorney for consultation, which included advice on options, review of documents and for exploring eligibility for various kinds of relief under the law.
- 4. Costs are to be reimbursed to attorney and paid by client in addition to attorney fees including filing fees to the court, storage, copy and scanning costs, long-distance phone calls, mail, fax charges and mileage, and all other out of pocket expenses incurred by attorney.
- 5. No portion of attorneys fees and costs that are paid or agreed to be paid may be cancelled or refunded. All fees and costs paid or agreed to by client are for fully earned compensation to attorney for services rendered for the responsibility of undertaking representation of the client. Client understands that Attorney's acceptance of undertaking representation of the client means that significant resources of Attorney's will be committed to the case and that other work the attorney would do will be set aside, delayed or turned down. All money paid or agreed to be paid by client is fully earned by Attorney and no money is refunded nor may client cancel the agreement regarding payment of attorney fees and costs.

- 1. Debtor(s) shall retain all pertinent original source documents. Attorney may, but need not, obtain a credit report and include the debt information from the credit report on the schedules. Client is responsible to monitor creditor claims that may be filed with the court or trustee in this case.
- 2. The source of payments made and agreed to be paid in the future was and will be from earnings, wages, earned government entitlements unless otherwise specified below.
- 3. The undersigned has received no transfer, assignment or pledge of property of the debtor unless specified below.
- 4. Attorney has not shared or agreed to share with any other entity other than members of his own law firm any compensation paid or to be paid unless specified below.
- 5. The undersigned client may (but need not) retain Attorney or a different firm or attorney for assistance in matters other than those services that have been paid for and agreed to in this agreement.
- a. Client may retain services of specialists in other areas of legal expertise such as tax, divorce, contracts, property, debt collection, credit reporting, mortgages and finance, business, property appraisers, certified public accountants or other experts. Client understands that expertise in other areas such as these are not paid for or included in Attorney's responsibilities.
- b. Client understands that the schedules of assets require the client's honest statement of the value of all property and assets owned by the client. Attorney has no special expertise as to how to arrive at the correct current value of property and assets. Client may hire the services of an appraiser if the client is unsure of value or if the client has insufficient knowledge of the value of client's assets or property.
- c. Client understands that research may be done into the status of any tax debts and tax consequences of filing bankruptcy, that without the time and expense of such research, the right to cancel or discharge certain tax debts may be lost or affected adversely by the timing of filing the bankruptcy case. Client may retain the services of a tax specialist, a business specialist, a certified public accountant, or other specialist to advise the client as to the tax consequences of bankruptcy at this time or the timing of filing bankruptcy as it relates to taxes. Client elects to proceed to file bankruptcy immediately even though tax debts may not be discharged or cancelled by filing bankruptcy at this time.
- d. In the event a joint petition is filed by husband and wife, clients agree that there is no conflict of interest for Attorney to represent both clients at this time for matters involved. Both clients agree that representing both at the same time will not adversely affect the relationship of Attorney with either client and that the clients' interests are not conflicting such as to adversely affect the individual interests in this case;. Each client understands that he or she may consult with his or her own attorney (not in this law firm) regarding any matter that may involve a conflict between the clients, and each should do so if any interest of the clients are in conflict. In the event Attorney withdraws from or terminates representation due to conflict of interest between the clients, there will be no refund or reduction of attorney fees and costs.

- e. In the event the client has not been a resident of Illinois for more than 2 years, the client is advised to retain the services of a qualified bankruptcy attorney who has knowledge of the exemption law of the state where the client resided prior to 2 years before the filing of this case. Attorney is not qualified or knowledgeable or licenced to practice in or concerning other states laws and rules for exempt property. Bankruptcy law allows a debtor to keep exempt assets, and such exemptions are determined by the law where the debtor resided prior to 2 years before the petition is filed. The attorney fee paid for this case does not include the cost of or retaining or consulting with any other lawyer or firm from this or any other state.
- 11. Additional services for which client has not yet paid attorney may also include assistance with reaffirmation agreements (Chapter 7) on debts client wishes to continue paying, preparation and filing of amendments to schedules, appearing at court hearings, examinations under oath, representing the client in adversary proceedings, motions or conversions.

Note: Paragraphs 12-15 apply to cases under Chapter 7 only.

- 12. Client anticipates that payment be made to attorney if client wishes to reaffirm debts: $200 per reaffirmation agreement. Client anticipates ______ reaffirmation agreement(s) may be desired for an additional attorney fee of ______ disclosed in this case and to be paid by the client to the Attorney at the time of signing the reaffirmation agreement(s).
- 13. Client understands that a reaffirmation agreement is a legally binding contract to continue paying on such a debt and, upon default, client may lose the collateral for the loan and be subject to suit for any deficiency on the underlying debt and other remedies allowed by law. Client also understands that reaffirmation agreements should not be signed if there is any possibility of a hardship on the client or anyone dependent on the client. It is further understood that once signed, the agreement must be promptly filed with the Court. Typically the reaffirmation will be signed by the Client and Attorney and forwarded to the creditor for signing and filing with the Court. Client understands that a motion for court approval of the reaffirmation agreement may be filed and brought before the Bankruptcy Judge for decision without the necessity of counsel. It is the client's duty to reaffirm the debt, if the client so chooses, within 30 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors. Attorney may refuse to sign the reaffirmation agreement in which case it would be necessary for the judge to approve the agreement in order for it to be valid. If the circumstances are such that the debtor may not afford the payments required under the proposed reaffirmation agreement, the attorney may not sign the agreement and the judge may not likely approve it.
- 14. Signing a reaffirmation agreement is voluntary and is not required, but once signed it is a legally binding contract. It may be revoked in writing within 60 days or up to the time of discharge in Bankruptcy, whichever is later by writing a letter of revocation to the Court and to the creditor.

- 15. It is an option of the client to redeem the collateral subject to a secured loan, such as a car loan, by paying the creditor the retail replacement value of the collateral. Replacement value is defined under 11 U.S.C. § 506 as the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering its age and condition. For any such redemption procedure, client agrees to pay an additional attorney fee of $750 per redemption which is hereby disclosed in this proceeding. Different rules apply to cases converted to Chapter 7 from Chapter 13.
- 16. Deeds of trust, mortgages, security interests and other liens on property are the typical kinds of debts which are to be paid by client so that the client can retain possession and ownership of a home, vehicle, or other type of property. Client understands that in order for such property to be retained by the client, the Deed of trust, mortgage, security interest or other lien must be valid in bankruptcy and the fair market value for the property must not exceed what has been stated by the client in the schedules of assets. In general in order for a deed of trust or mortgage to be valid in bankruptcy it must be duly recorded within 30 days of execution or more than 90 days prior to filing bankruptcy. If the trust deed or mortgage is not so properly recorded it may be invalid and the property subject to sale by the bankruptcy court. For vehicles and mobile homes purchased in Illinois, liens on such vehicles and mobile homes must be perfected through the Illinois Department of Vehicles (D.M.V.) by prompt action by the lender. If such liens are not registered with the D.M.V., they are subject to invalidation by the bankruptcy court and the underlying vehicle or mobile home may be sold by the bankruptcy court. It is therefore urged by Attorney that the client review the recorded trust deeds, mortgages, and liens prior to filing bankruptcy to be sure that such encumbrances are valid in bankruptcy and that the property may be retained by client. In the event the client wishes to file bankruptcy before obtaining documents to determine the validity of a lien, client waives any claim against Attorney in the event a lien is declared invalid and property or assets of the client are sold by the bankruptcy court.
- 17. It is client's responsibility to supply all necessary information prior to filing the case. In the event that additional debts are added later or if any amendment to schedules is necessary, it is disclosed and client agrees to pay $200 per amendment as an additional attorney fee plus any applicable filing fees, mailing, copy and other expenses. The undersigned client states that all information supplied on the schedules of assets, debts, income and expenses is true and correct. Client understands that failure to disclose all information requested in the Schedules and Statement of Affairs may result in criminal and/ or civil penalties. Client therefore agrees to review all documents at signing and to again review them when a copy is sent to the client at the address stated on the petition. Client agrees to update or amend all documents as needed to ensure completeness and correctness of all documents.
- 18. Client understands that certain debts may not be discharged (cancelled) by the bankruptcy and that certain assets may be lost if they are not exempt. Assets may also be lost if they are not disclosed or if the current values are not accurately stated on the Schedules. Client understands that most taxes, educational loans, criminal fines, debts incurred by fraud (including misuse of credit cards), intentional misconduct or wrongful acts, obligations to a condominium or homeowners association, money borrowed to pay taxes, and obligations under a divorce or support decreed may not be discharged (cancelled) by filing bankruptcy. Usage of credit within 90 days prior to filing bankruptcy may give rise to a presumption of fraud. Property of the debtor remains subject to obligations owed for support, alimony and other domestic obligations. Client is advised that even though a debt may be discharged in bankruptcy, the client's bank or credit union deposits might be frozen or taken by that bank or credit union if it is owed money.

1. CLIENT IS ALSO ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING:

- a. ALL INFORMATION PROVIDED BY CLIENT WITH A BANKRUPTCY PETITION MUST BE COMPLETE, ACCURATE, AND TRUTHFUL. ALL ASSETS AND ALL LIABILITIES ARE REQUIRED TO BE COMPLETELY AND ACCURATELY DISCLOSED IN THE DOCUMENTS FILED TO COMMENCE THE CASE.
- b. REPLACEMENT VALUE OF EACH ASSET DEFINED IN TITLE 11 U.S.C. 506, MUST BE STATED IN THOSE DOCUMENTS WHERE REQUESTED AFTER REASONABLE INQUIRY TO ESTABLISH SUCH VALUE.
- c. CURRENT MONTHLY INCOME, THE AMOUNTS SPECIFIED IN 11 U.S.C. 707(b)(2), AND IN A CASE UNDER CHAPTER 13 OF THIS TITLE, DISPOSABLE INCOME, DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH 11 U.S.C. 707(b)(2), ARE REQUIRED TO BE STATED AFTER REASONABLE INQUIRY.
- d. INFORMATION PROVIDED DURING THE CASE MAY BE AUDITED AND FAILURE TO PROVIDE SUCH INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN DISMISSAL OF THE CASE OR OTHER SANCTION INCLUDING CRIMINAL SANCTION.
- e. CREDIT COUNSELING SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE WHICH PROVIDE ASSISTANCE TO DEBTORS WITHOUT FILING FOR BANKRUPTCY BY PROPOSING DEBT MANAGEMENT PLANS, WHICH USUALLY ATTEMPT TO REDUCE INTEREST RATES, WAIVE LATE FEES AND OTHERWISE ASSIST THOSE WITH DEBT TROUBLE. - 20. Client acknowledges receipt of the document entitled: "IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER" as well as written information describing the relief available under Chapter 7, 11, 12, and 13.
- 21. Client understands that certain documents must be produced for filing with the court or trustee's office and that failure to produce all required documents will result in dismissal of the case or other sanction. In the event the client has not produced these documents at the time of signing the petition, client agrees to obtain and produce such documents within 3 business days. Client understands that such documents must be produced and it is agreed that it is the CLIENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO PRODUCE ALL THE REQUIRED DOCUMENTS so that the case may proceed under the appropriate chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Client understands that the following documents must be produced by an individual debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, in other words, by the undersigned client.
- a. PICTURE IDENTIFICATION and SOCIAL SECURITY CARD.
- b. WAGE STUBS for the last seven months of pay periods, including payment advices (like pay stubs) or other evidence of payment received within the past seven months from all employers as well as records of any bonuses, commissions, or special payments received in the last seven months, and all sources of income (taxable or not) need to be included when calculating average income for the past six months.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
